OFFICE: No. 15 Quincy Street.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 10, '70.

A MORE amusing change of tactics than that employed by the Register towards the WELLS registry bill, is not often witnessed. Last Friday, after a protonged and he had desperate resistance by the Democrats, know he had been a supported to approximent in the Mr. ed. Last Friday, after a prolonged and House against the vote of every Democrat except Mr. Lamb, who voted for it so as to be able to make the motion for a reconsideration. Discovering that the Deconsideration. Discovering that the De-mocracy had committed a blunder in re-asting the bill, that gentleman afterwards withdrew his motion to reconsider. Tues-day when the bill came up on its passage, and was addressed by Hon. Benjamin Stanton, counsel for the sitting member, and when he had concluded the House only two Democrats had the courage to be consistent with their votes Friday and vote against the bill, viz: Messrs. LAMB and Faris, of this county. "Let us go before the people on the record," says the Register, and so say we. When the WELLS bill stood before the House as an independent proposition, Mr. Lamb's bill hav ing been voted out of the House, and when the Democracy had to choose between the Wells bill and the existing law, they voted against the Wells bill in solid column. That is a "record" the people understand. The people will take will for the deed, and hold the Democracy just as responsible as if they had succeeded in their attempt to defea this just and liberal measure:

the United States that the Legal Tender act is of non-effect as regards debts contracted previous to its passage, is simply the affirmation by the Court that Congress cannot, in accordance with the constitution, impair the obligation of contracts. All debts contracted prior to the passage of that act were contracted upon a specie basis, and equity would, of course, de-mand that such debts should be settled upon the same basis upon which they were contracted-that is, that the "dollars" then contracted to be paid should, at the maturity of the contract, bear the same general relation of value to the currency of the world at large.

POLITICAL COMPLEXION OF KENTUCKY. The Courier-Journal says that the negroes of that State have decreased from 236,168 in 1860 to 140,445 in 1869, and that the adoption of the Fifteenth Amendment will not make the slightest change in the political status of Kentucky. It estimates the negro vote at 38,000, and says if they vote the radical ticket en muse, it will scarcely alter the result even in a single legislative district. The principal black vote will be in Louisville city and Jefferson county 5,300; Fayette, 4,000; Bour-Christian, 1,700; Logan, 1,000; Logan, 1,000; Madison, 1,000; Shelby, 1,500, and Warren 1,000.

the Auditor in his next annual report to give in detail certain expenses of the State government, was adopted.

Message of Governor Walker. Legislature of Virginia Tuesday. He congratulated the Legislature that they are the lawfully constituted General Assembly of the State of Virginia-a State that notwithstanding fundamental conditions as fuile as unnecessury, is coequal in all her rights and prerogatives with any and every State in the American Union. "You and I," he says, "lawe qualified by taking the same cath of offlee, and we have solomity pledged ourselves before heaven to support and maintain the Constitution and laws of the United States, as well as of the State of Vireinia: that we recognize and State of Virginia; that we recognize and all men before the law, and that we will faithfully perform our official duties to the best of our ability. A strict and conscien-tious observance of this solemn obli-gation will redound to the peace gation will redound to the peace and prosperity of the State, and be a vin-dication of the just expectations of the people and of our friends everywhere. It is your duty to make laws, mine to exe-cute them. Fulfil your duty and I pledge you a faithful and fearless execution of mine." Of the State Constitution he says: "Its provisions shall have a fair and invarial trial, and when, if ever, experisays: "Its provisions shall have a fair and impartial trial, and when, if ever, experience shall demonstrate the inutility or impracticability of any of them, we will proceed to make such modification as necessity may demand. The manifestation of punic faith by others affords no justification for a departure from the path of right by us. The ancient and proverbial reputation of the people of this Commonwealth for honor and integrity will be maintained, regardless of the selfish and fanatical vituperations of our enemies at home and abroadle The Governor advocates the encouragement of emigration into the State, and avs any attempt to reopen the sores of the war for party purposes should be frowned down, and concluded: "Always a firm and consistent union-ist, I expect to live and die one. Female. Brokers -- The Firs Day's Operations -- Manner of their Reception by the "Street."

Wall, Broad and New streets have an-other sensation, and this time one in which the feeling is unanimous and opinions are Broad street, formerly occupied by Gray, who lately swindled various parties in the street out of $300,000, and have establish ed themselves in business as stock brokers. Drugglats. The scene at their-office, yesterday beg-gars description. The place was thronged from early morning until late at night by a crowd of curiosity hunters, who gazed at the females and besieged them with questions. The older find more respecta-ble dealers of the street remained at their offices, discussing the advent of the female financiers in the street, and there was a strong popular feeling against the persons, not so much because women embark in the business of stock brokerage as hecause of their antecedents. of their antecedents.

WHO THEY ARE

About a year ago, at No. 17 Great Jones street, the parties who compose the stock brokerage firm of Woodhull, Claffin & Co. brokerage firm of Woodhul, Clatin & Co, were magnetle physicians and clairvey-ants. They charged $25 00 in advance for their services, advertised largely, and guaranteed wonderful cures. For a time business went on swimmingly. But at last a turn came in the tide. The clairvoyant powers becoming exhausted or discovered to be all humbug, they took another tack and have anchored their craft in Broad street. At the best such is the strong popular feeling against them that it will be difficult for them to transact clairvoyant. It was reported that Com-modore Vanderbilt was assisting them to carry on the business, but this assertion the Commodore's friends stoutly deny.

The scenes of yesterday are, to say the least, disgraceful in the extreme. Insult arks and sha ing remarks and shameful allusions were carried to the ears of the women (who pretended to be very busy in the transaction of their business) by the throng that curiously examined everything in the offices, and who sang and whistied after the fashion of the Bowery pit. A short, speedy winding up of the firm of Woodhull, Claffin & Co., is predicted.—New York Times.
